

GIANLUCA DE MARCO

Construction Engineer-Architect since 2006 at the University of L'Aquila - expert in consulting, training, safety planning and construction management concerning many categories of construction works in temporary and mobile construction sites of both public and private works. He holds the role of Consultant for the management of safety in various work activities falling into various macro-sectors of reference. BIM Specialist and Safety Manager in the design, execution, construction and facility management phases.